

Chris Anderson is Vice President – Advanced Services Service Delivery for AT&T. Chris and his nationwide team are responsible for all ordering and provisioning activities supporting AT&T’s advanced High Speed and IP services for business clients. Prior to his current position, Chris held several other senior positions with AT&T and BellSouth including head of BellSouth’s Business Customer Care for three years prior to the BellSouth & AT&T merger in January 2007. Chris is a native of Brooklyn, NY and holds a Bachelor of Science in Management from The Georgia Institute of Technology. He enjoys spending time with his wife, Sandee and their four children, Matthew, Christopher, Thomas, and Grace. Together they enjoy traveling and many outdoor activities including boating and biking.

Brad Dalton leads the Enterprise Divestiture Services team for Bank of America focusing on divestitures and joint ventures for the corporation. He has been employed with Bank of America since 1986. Brad graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1989 where he majored in Accounting / Accounting Systems, and is a certified Six Sigma Master Black Belt. Brad is married to Rhonda and they have one daughter, Tori, whose is member of the class of 2020 and has been at Mount Pisgah since she was an infant. The Dalton’s are members of Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church and enjoy many outdoor activities including hiking, camping and aviation.

Glenn Davenport was formerly the President of Horizon Software International LLC. In the spring of 2008, he led the effort to sell Horizon to Roper Industries. Previously, he spent 33 years at Morrison Management Specialist. He served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer from 1996-2006. In 2001, he led the sale of Morrison to Compass Group, the world’s largest food service provider based in the United Kingdom. The recipient of an Honorary Doctorate in Culinary Arts from Johnson & Wales University, Davenport is an unwavering champion of industry by serving on several Boards for numerous organizations and businesses. He has two grandchildren who attend Pisgah: Sarah-Kate and Grayson.

Joan Delk is originally from Tampa, Fla. and has been a Pisgah parent for 15yrs. Her daughter Jordan was an Alpha and Omega graduate from Pisgah in May 2010 and is now a freshman at Furman University. She has a son Jacob, who is currently a freshman at Pisgah. Joan played collegiate golf at Furman University, where she earned her BS in Sports Marketing. She played competitively on the LPGA Tour for 10 yrs. She was a TV Golf Analyst for ESPN for the LPGA and NCAA Women’s Golf. After competing on tour, Joan embarked on a new career in teaching. She was the Teaching Professional and Head Professional at Gold Creek Golf Club, she was a Teaching Professional at Accelerized Golf, which is an indoor computerized video teaching facility. She is currently the Teaching Professional at Crystal Falls Golf Club and Big Canoe Golf Club. Her involvement at Pisgah includes being the leader of the Moms and PALS Tuesday Bible Study, Member of the Admissions Ambassador Council, coached the Middle School and Varsity Golf Teams, Mentor Family Parent Representative, and Senior Class Parent Representative. Her husband John Delk is the President of the MPAAs, the Mount Pisgah Parents Athletic Association.

Joe Gaynor is Vice President and General Counsel for Columbian Chemicals Company, a global manufacturer of carbon black, with its world headquarters in Marietta, Georgia. Joe leads a team of professionals responsible for the legal, safety, and environmental matters associated with the company’s sales offices and production facilities in 12 countries and 4 continents. Previous to his current position, Joe was the General Counsel for various private and publicly-held pharmaceutical, manufacturing, technology and sales and distribution companies. Joe is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio and holds a B.S. in Accounting and Finance from Miami University and a Juris Doctorate from Emory University School of Law. Joe and his wife Courtney have four children who have attended or are attending Mount Pisgah Christian School: Michael graduated from Pisgah in 2005; Daniel graduated from Pisgah in 2007; Alistair is a member of the class of 2011; and Paris is a member of the class of 2014. The Gaynors feel blessed to have been a part of Pisgah for more than 10 years.

Curtis Hicks has broad-based real estate experience with particular emphasis on the retail and residential sectors. In the more than 20 years since his graduation from Emory University, he has held senior management, brokerage and development positions at numerous companies. He now owns Hicks Land Investment Company. His knowledge of metro-Atlanta development and retail sites, his familiarity with the individual customer requirements of major retailers and his experience in land assemblage and brokerage, made him one of metro Atlanta’s leading real estate consultants and brokers. Curtis is married to Deborah and they have two children who attend Pisgah: Grant and Eve. Curtis is also the proud father of Katie who graduated from Pisgah in 2007.

Keith Hughes is a Managing Director in equity research at SunTrust Robinson Humphrey providing coverage on public companies in Building Product/Consumer Durable Goods industries. Previously, he worked for five years in highly protected risk (HPR) property insurance as an engineer and underwriter for two leading property and casualty insurance companies. Keith has a Bachelor of Industrial and Systems Engineering from Georgia Tech and an MBA in Finance from Georgia State University. He has two children at MPCS, is a member of MPUMC, and joined the Board of Trustees in 2010.

Glen “Happy” Mayer is a tireless and dedicated volunteer for Mount Pisgah Christian School. With more than 30 years experience in the finance industry, including a successful career at United Parcel Service, Happy now brings his energy and enthusiasm to Pisgah. As co-chairman of the Grandparent Council, Happy helps plan, organize, and execute important connect events for the school. He also works closely with the Pisgah Advancement office throughout the year on a variety of projects. He and his wife Lynn are grandparents to three Pisgah students: Maddison, McKayla, and Emma.

Dr. Jean McGarrity received a Ph.D. in Educational Leadership from Emory University in 1990. She taught at Emory from 1988-1995 and was responsible for coordinating field experiences of undergraduate and graduate pre-service teachers. Dr. McGarrity was a faculty member at Mercer University 1980-1987 where she taught teacher preparation courses and was Director of the Continuing Education Program. From 1983-1986, she served as a Consultant to Gwinnett County Schools. Currently, Jean and her husband, Doug, attend Northside United Methodist Church where she is a Stephen Minister and Chair of the Greeters’ Ministry. She is a volunteer at Hospice Atlanta serving in the areas of Spiritual Care and the Speakers’ Bureau. Previously, Dr. McGarrity served as President of the Atlanta Ronald McDonald House Board. She and her husband Doug are grandparents to four girls-two of whom attend Pisgah: Kasey and Kara.

Bruce Parker is the Head of Global Life Insurance for Pan American Life Insurance Group. Prior to this position Bruce was a strategic consultant for Private Equity firms focusing on the insurance industry. During his 27 year career he has held numerous positions in the financial services industry including the CEO of Old Mutual US a life, annuity, and mutual funds company focusing on serving and International customers. Bruce has a BA from New York State University at Oswego and a Master’s in Management from The American College. He is a trustee for The American College in Bryn Mawr, PA. Bruce and his wife Vickie are members of Mount Pisgah UMC and have three children Ryan, Courtney and Alex.

Larry Payne is Cisco’s Area Vice President for the State and Local Government and Education (SLED) markets. In this role, he leads Cisco’s sales strategy and go-to-market activities for the Southern and Western United States, and is responsible for $1.5B in annual revenue. Payne has held a variety of sales management positions at Cisco in his 15 years with the company. Based in Atlanta, GA, he served as Director of Operations for Cisco’s commercial segment in the Southeastern United States. He also led sales teams in Cisco’s enterprise and service provider segments, and has worked closely with channel partners as well as customers. Before joining Cisco in 1995, Payne worked for Newport Systems, Inc., and Combinet, Inc., two technology start-up companies that were acquired by Cisco. Previously, he worked for Micom Communications in sales and engineering. He began his career as a network engineer for Contel Corporation. Payne serves on the board of directors at TechAmerica, a non-profit policy organization representing the IT industry. He has a B.S. in Engineering Management with a Mechanical Engineering preference from the University of Missouri, Science and Technology. He and his wife, Lori, live with their three children in Alpharetta, GA.

Mike Reinsel attended the University of St. Thomas and Rice University in Houston, TX where he obtained a BA in Philosophy with minors in Theology and Spanish. Following graduation in 1982, Mike taught and coached at St. Thomas High School in Houston. He moved to Atlanta and began a career in floor covering in 1986 and started FloorWorks in 1995 with a desire to honor God in the business environment. FloorWorks quickly grew to be one of the leaders in the Atlanta building marketplace in both size and reputation. Mike has also been involved in land development and home construction. Some of Mike’s prior and current associations include: North DeKalb Rotary Club, 1997-2022 (President in 1999), Board of Trustees: Rivers of the World, Board of Trustees: Georgia Family Council, Board of Trustees: A Beacon of Hope, Board of Trustees: Summit Counseling Center, Board of Trustees: Apartment Life. Mike stepped away from day-to-day management of FloorWorks in 2002 to follow God’s call to full-time vocational ministry and served as Executive Pastor at Mount Pisgah UMC Church from 2002-2006. Mike especially enjoys living out the biblical mandate of loving God and loving others. He has led over 20 mission trips through Rivers of the World www.row.org going to some of the most remote places in the world to help others improve their life situation and to share the Gospel. Mike has led mission trips to Belize, Peru, Brazil, Costa Rica, China, Colombia and the Congo and is passionate about spreading the Gospel in remote areas with those that wouldn’t otherwise have an opportunity to hear about Jesus. He leads the Global Mission Strategy Council at Mount Pisgah UMC Church in Alpharetta, GA.

Matt Tanzy is the President and CEO of 1st Payment Systems. After 15 years with GE Capital, he founded his first payment processing venture. This company served GE, Transamerica, Honda and other large manufacturers and was eventually sold to Sage Group PLC (SGE) a publically traded software company. Matt’s second company was purchased after three years by a private equity group out of PA. His latest venture focuses on the healthcare industry. Its clients include the American Academy of Pediatrics, Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta and DeKalb Hospital. Matt attended the University of Oklahoma for his undergraduate studies and went on to complete an MBA at Emory University. He and his wife Beth have three children Allison, Mitchell and Olivia who attend Mount Pisgah Christian School and are in 9th, 7th and 2nd grade respectively. As a family, they worship at Mount Pisgah church and in their spare time enjoy travelling, sports and the great outdoors.

Doug Williams is the President and CEO of iHealth Technologies. He is responsible for iHealth Technologies strategy, growth, operations and team. A veteran health care executive, Doug has assembled a senior management team of experienced leaders from the payor arena, health care technology, care management and informatics. Prior to establishing iHT in 2001, Doug was the CEO of Magellan Specialty Health. He was also Executive Vice President of Vivra and served in senior roles at CIGNA Healthcare. Doug received a BSBA from Appalachian State University. He and his family worship at Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church. Doug and his wife Dianne have two daughters: Ashley who is a current Pisgah student and Brittany who is a 2009 graduate.

Reverend Steve Wood is the Senior Pastor of Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church. Prior to his appointment at MPUMC, Steve served as Pastor of Red Oak UMC in College Park and planted the New Covenant UMC. In 1997, Steve was appointed Senior Pastor of Sugar Hill UMC in Gwinnett County where he served for ten years. Steve currently serves as Vice-Chair of the North Georgia Conference Council on Finance and Administration, and is one of 14 clergy delegates elected to the world gathering of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church representing the North Georgia Conference. Steve attended Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky where he received the Master of Divinity degree. Steve and his wife of twenty-three years, LeAnne, have three children who attend Pisgah: Lacey, Layne, and Steven, Jr. Their daughter Lauren graduated from Pisgah in 2008. Their family resides in Alpharetta, GA, and they enjoy water sports, golf, gardening, snow skiing, baseball, basketball, and bike-riding.